

CHANGING LIVES – SUSTAINABLE FUTURES

FREE Conference funded by Erasmus+

Date: 7th July 2016

Time: 10.00 - 15.30

Venue: Aylesbury College
Oxford Road
Aylesbury
HP21 8PD

Conference Programme - Morning

- 10.00 – 10.30 Registration and coffee
- 10.30 – 10.40 Introduction to Insider Access and Penrose Roots
Robert Morrall (Director, Insider Access) – Samantha Smith (Manager, Penrose Roots)
- 10.40 – 10.50 Introduction to the European Green in Everyday Life Project
Carmen Molina (Erasmus+ GIEL Project Manager, Asociación Columbares, Spain)
- * Background, concept and project aims
 - * Partnership working: Sweden, UK, Italy, Spain, Jordan, Morocco
- 10.50 – 11.10 The value of Green in Everyday Life training for engagement, employability and social inclusion
Robert Morrall (Director, Insider Access)
- * Experiences from HMP The Mount
 - * Learning in Milton Keynes Probation Hostel
 - * Community Learning
- 11.10 – 11.30 Linking food redistribution to supporting young disadvantaged youth into employment
Richard Kennell (Director, SOFEA)
- * Good practice from SOFEA – South Oxfordshire Food and Education Academy
- 11.30 - 11.50 Coffee break
- 11.50 – 12.15 Changing Tunes - Changing the lives prisoners and ex-prisoners: reducing re-offending through music
Philip Emery (Director, Changing Tunes (London & South East))
- * Introduction to Changing Tunes
 - * Music from Changing Tunes
- 12.15 – 12.35 Penrose - Roots to recovery
Samantha Smith (Manager, Penrose Roots)
- * Work of Penrose Roots in the community
 - * Men Sheds
- 12.35 – 12.50 Innovative eco ways to engage disadvantaged groups
Aleh Kliatsko, (President, Global Playground)
- * Projects from Global Playground in Stockholm, Sweden
- 12.50 – 13.10 How Green Homes training engages disadvantaged migrant groups
Carmen Molina (Project Manager, Asociación Columbares)
- * Experiences from Asociación Columbares, Murcia, Spain
- 13.10 – 14.00 FREE Lunch, networking and partner displays:
- * Pictora Pop Up art exhibition
 - * Launch of the Pictora/Penrose Art Awards
 - * Changing Tunes
 - * Penrose – Roots, Criminal Justice Service, Social Interest Group

Conference Programme - Afternoon

- 14.00 – 14.10 Savvy Cycling in London
Mario Tascon
Empowering older individuals through cycling
- 14.10 – 15.15 Introduction to Training Materials and participation in some of the green games/learning
Robert Morrall (Insider Access) and Carmen Molina (Asociación Columbares)
- 15.15 – 15.30 Plenary session and International Network news
- 15.30 Conference closure

All delegates will receive a printed copy of the training materials used, together with lesson plans to facilitate running Green in Everyday Life training in their own organisation.

BOOK NOW

for your FREE PLACE

How to book your free place

email: robert@insider-access.org

Providing the following details:

Your name

Email address

Organisation details

Any dietary requirements